BRAKE LOOSE

ELECTRONIC PRESS KIT
2023 - 2024

Hailing from Dublin, Ireland, Brake Loose – front-man Alex Murillo, guitarists David O'Grady & Tico Pellegrino, bassist Eoin Madden, and drummer Dylan Martin – are five 21st-century romantics living the rock 'n' roll lifestyle – one of touring and tearing up every single venue they perform.

Led and formed in 2021 by reckless Venezuelan singer, poet and songwriter Alex Murillo, they've established themselves as a notable force on the local rock scene. Selling out their first headline show at The Workman's Club – Dublin, the band was handpicked early 2022 by Rob Stevenson to join Sparta distribution, an invite-only distribution platform part New York label '300 Entertainment' and now with the help of indie label 'Sliptrick Records' they are currently crafting their debut album. Being featured in Hot Press Magazine as "Hot Irish Acts for 2022" – 2023 is set to be a wild one.
